- COLLEGE DECISION DAY Attention Seniors: It's Time to Celebrate Your Achievements! We are excited to honor all that you've accomplished! Join us on May 9th from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM at Celebration Point for College Decision Day, hosted by the Gainesville Chamber of Commerce. If you've been accepted to a college or university, or if you will be joining the military, this is your night to shine and be celebrated. Each graduate will receive a special "goody bag" from the institution they will be attending. There will also be free food, so bring your family, friends, and school spirit to celebrate your success and take part in this exciting milestone. We can't wait to see you there! Please register by April 23rd at: 2025 Florida College Decision Day Survey
- Members of Senior Class 2025 that attended Chiles Elementary: Check in at the front office at 8:40am on May 27. Please wear a t-shirt that represents you graduating high school. RSVP here by May 23: <https://forms.gle/6VHXvaJfmE4qqXiU6> or by emailing kelwarm5@gmail.com.
- TeensWork Alachua is recruiting student interns for Summer 2025. Eligible students are Alachua County residents, ages 14–18, and who are rising 7th–12th graders at an Alachua County School. Must be all 3 to participate. LINK TO THE STUDENT APPLICATION. TWA Contact Information: twa@goodwillnorthfl.org or (904) 606 – 5178.
- UF College of Medicine is offering a Summer Pre-Medical Professions Program (<https://admissions.med.ufl.edu/why-uf/unique-opportunities/summer-pre-medical-professions-program/>) designed for rising junior or senior high school students who are interested in pursuing a career in medicine. The program provides a unique chance for students to engage in hands-on learning, interact with medical professionals, and gain valuable insights into the medical school experience. Program duration: The Summer Pre-Medical Professions Program has four (4) one-week sessions. Each session begins on Monday and ends on Friday. There will be two program orientations which will take place on the Sunday prior to each session. Yes, there are scholarship opportunities available for eligible students. Students eligible for program scholarships must apply based on their nomination and recommendation. If you have any students who meet the eligibility criteria, we encourage you to nominate them and provide a recommendation to support their application. The scholarship selection process relies heavily on your insight and endorsement of the student's qualifications and character. Please ensure that any eligible students are aware of the nomination and recommendation process to complete their application successfully. To help you get all the details about the program, I encourage you to visit our FAQ (<https://admissions.med.ufl.edu/why-uf/unique-opportunities/summer-pre-medical-professions-program/faqs-about-spmpp/>) page. There, you'll find important information including session dates, a sample schedule, transportation details, and much more.
- Program Requirements:
  - Be a rising junior or senior from any Alachua County High school or any surrounding counties within driving distance
