GENERAL

- There will be a Parliament meeting today, October 9th, in the Auditorium during 2nd period.
- Reminder: The PSAT will be administered on Wednesday, October 10th from 8:30am-12:15pm. All 10th graders- and certain 11th graders who have already signed up- should report to their testing location with number 2 pencils and an approved calculator. Room locations will be posted near the main office and buildings 8 & 9. Please arrive promptly. All test takers will go to "B" lunch.
- Picture make-up day is Tuesday, October 15th, 8:00am through B lunch in Mr. Lindgren's classroom (2-009). All staff and students that missed picture day should attend.
- Florida Credit Union Scholarships available - Scholarships from Florida Credit Union are awarded based on the student's scholastic record, future potential, leadership, initiative, character, dependability, integrity, and financial needs. Scholarships are available to any student who is actively enrolled or plans to enroll in undergraduate courses within the calendar year. The student or their parent/guardian must also be a member of Florida Credit Union. FLCU offers 3 sponsorship opportunities: the Servin-Ellis Scholarship Fund, the Buchholz Academy of Finance Scholarship, and the Dr. John C. Rawls Scholarship Fund. Details about these three opportunities and their applications can be found on the FLCU website: <https://www.flcu.org/about-us/scholarships/>.
- Seniors planning to attend any college or university in the 2019-2020 academic year should complete the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) as soon as possible to get the maximum funding available. The FAFSA opened on October 1st and many dollars are awarded on a first-come, first-served basis. You do not want to be the last on the list! Complete the FAFSA at www.fafsa.gov.
- Buchholz Cabinet is hosting a homecoming proposal contest on Twitter. Tag @BHSCabinet in your homecoming proposal. The Homecoming proposal photo with the most likes or retweets will win 2 free homecoming dance tickets.
