

9th Grade Honors (Incoming Freshman) I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings by Maya Angelou	10th grade Honors The Hate U Give by Angie Thomas
AP Capstone (AP Seminar or AP Research) Required: The Craft of Research by Booth, Colomb, Williams (3rd or 4th edition) Optional, but recommended: Everything's an Argument by Lunsford & Ruskiewicz (8th edition)
11th grade Honors The Scarlet Letter by Nathaniel Hawthorne	AP Language Composition The Glass Castle by Jeannette Walls
AICE Paper (11th or 12th grade) Choose ONE (which you have NOT previously read): 57 Bus by Dshaja Slater I Am Malala by Malala Yousafzai Born a Crime by Trevor Noah Be prepared to begin college entrance essay work
12th grade Honors Wuthering Heights, Emily Bronte Be prepared to begin college entrance essay work	AP Literature Where the Crawdads Sing by Delia Owens Be prepared to begin college entrance essay work

Be prepared to discuss, write, and expand on your reading the first two weeks of class.