Estimados padres/tutores legales:

Las Escuelas Públicas del Condado de Alachua cumplen con las leyes federales y estatales concernientes a los requisitos de certificación de maestros (ESSA sec. 1112 (e), Estatuto de la Florida 1012.42). Esta carta es una notificación de que su hijo ha sido enseñado por cuatro o más semanas consecutivas por un maestro que no ha cumplido con los requisitos aplicables de certificación estatal o los requisitos de licencia en el nivel de grado y/o nivel de materia en la que se le ha asignado enseñar.

Un maestro certificado por el estado es uno que:

1. Ha obtenido un bachillerato universitario o más,
2. Ha obtenido una certificación estatal completa en las asignaturas se le asigna para enseñar.

A la fecha de esta carta, la maestra de su hijo, Hannah Kastensmidt, ha obtenido una licenciatura o un título superior, pero aún no ha obtenido una aprobación de lectura complementaria para agregar a su certificación.

Queremos recalcar que el maestro de su hijo ha cumplido con los requisitos como un "Instructor Calificado" como se define en la Regla 6A-1.0503 de la Junta Estatal de Educación.
