Our Yankee Candle Fundraiser is kicking off today! Please check your child's backpack for an informational packet. Proceeds from this fundraiser support positive behavior incentive programs at our school!

Starting Monday, Shell Mustangs will be studying the character trait of self-discipline. The definition of self-discipline is "doing the right thing, even when you don't want to". To reinforce what your child will learn at school, please discuss ways in which they can exhibit self-discipline. If you would like to participate in what we are studying, discuss how self-discipline benefits us by helping us finish tasks and achieve goals. Explain to your child that nothing worthwhile gets done without self-discipline and relate some of your own experiences. Talk about how good it feels to accomplish something challenging through self-discipline. Thank you!

Happy Birthday!
