Absent/Tardy Student Policy:

If a student is absent from class it is his/her responsibility to find out what was missed. They will have the same number of days they were absent to make up all missing work (weekends are not counted). Any work not received by this deadline will be marked as a zero. If a student is tardy they must make up the work in the remaining class time. If the tardy coincides with a test day then I will give extra time as I see fit depending on the circumstance of the tardy. Newberry High School's tardy policy will be strictly enforced.

Defensive Tactics Information:

Please understand that you will take part in Defensive Tactics training while at the Academy. This training can be inherently dangerous and will be taught under the utmost scrutiny only by the Director of the Academy or other trained instructors. If at any time the instructor feels that you are being unsafe while participating in this training, or found to be performing these tactics outside the direct supervision of the instructor you will be removed from instruction, which will impact your participation and classwork grade.

Additional Information:

Please remember that it is a privilege to be a part of the Criminal Justice Academy. You are required to maintain a 2.5 GPA and acceptable behavior at all times. Failure to fulfill these obligations will result in probationary status within the Academy. If the deficiencies are not corrected during the probationary period you will be removed from the Academy of Criminal Justice and returned to your zoned school if it is not currently Newberry High.
