Parent & Family Engagement Mission Statement

Response: Parent involvement is essential in raising student achievement. At A. Quinn Jones Center, the administration and teachers are committed to involving parents in their students' performance at school. Daily student progress reports, monthly parent meetings, conferences, the A. Quinn Jones Journal and the Title I Home/School Compact are some of the ways home/school communication is accomplished.

Involvement of Parents

The school will involve parents in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs including parental involvement and in the decisions regarding how funds for parental involvement will be used by:

- Holding a Title I Annual Family Engagement meeting at the beginning of the school year (Hyflex)
- Discussing family engagement at monthly SAC meetings; including the budget, the SIP, PIP and Home/school Compact
- Phone calls and emails to invite parents to Family Engagement activities
- Parent surveys and evaluation of Title I sponsored activities

Coordination and Integration

The school will coordinate and integrate the following Parent & Family Engagement programs and activities with other Federal Programs, to the extent feasible and appropriate, in an effort to teach parents how to help their children at home.
